

We've Done it Again! ELittle Communications Group Named One of The Top Public Relations Agencies in St. Louis, MO

(St. Louis, MO) ELittle Communications Group (ELM), has been named one of the top public relations agencies by St. Louis Small Business Monthly. The firm was highlighted in the publications Top PR issue in July 2018. ELittle Communications Group is both DBE and MBE certified and is headed by CEO and President Johnny Little, Jr.

ELittle Communications Group is a full-service, minority-owned public relations agency that specializes in external/internal communications, marketing, advertising, social media, crisis communications, and focus group research. ELittle Communications Group has positioned itself as a top PR firm in the Midwest by providing the highest quality of services, delivering positive results, and guaranteeing on-time delivery.

“Our goals are to support, develop, and promote the reputations, images, and public perceptions of our clients,” said Johnny Little, President/CEO. “We identify the current level of public outreach and prepare strategies around how to maximize effectiveness.”

The firm is headquartered in St. Louis, MO with a second office location in Memphis, TN.

###